

A wicker basket with a blue sky and hands holding it.

I Will Breathe With You

I can never feel the pain
But I can look and see it here
I can never know the sorrow
But I can hear it in your voice

So
We'll sit, right here
together.

I can never know the fear
But I can feel its real, tonight
I may never understand
But I can walk here, right next to you

So
We'll stand right here
Together

And I will breathe, with you
If that's ok
If not, well, maybe another day
I will breathe with you
If that's alright
alright

If there's one who cannot dream
Then no one here can live the dream
If there's one who sleeps in fear
Then no one sleeps , at all

So
We'll live right here
Together

I will breathe with you
If that's ok
If not, well, maybe another day.

I will breathe with you
If that's alright
Alright

If there's one who cannot breathe
Then no one here can breathe, at all
If there's one who can't be free
Then no one here is free, at all

So
We'll breathe right here
Together